Problems

Tom Rochette <tom.rochette@coreteks.org>

July 24, 2025 — daae079c

Everyone has problems they need to solve. Here I try to write down and collect all the problems I've encountered in the past and for which I have searched for a solution or developed one.

1 2020

1.1 February

- 2020/02/10 - AST in python
- 2020/02/11 - Knowing what your users need without having users
- 2020/02/12 - Visual Studio Code Run Me extension
- 2020/02/13 - Data anonymizer
- 2020/02/14 - Vocabulary gradient
- 2020/02/15 - Photo geolocation
- 2020/02/16 - Chrome tabs count
- 2020/02/17 - PHP code coverage verifier
- 2020/02/18 - Anki recorder
- 2020/02/19 - PHP semantic versioning checker
- 2020/02/20 - Omnifocus "ofocus" format
- 2020/02/21 - Learning topics that are overwhelming
- 2020/02/22 - Visual Studio Code Emoji extension
- 2020/02/23 - IMDb ratings importer
- 2020/02/24 - Rotten Tomatoes ratings exporter
- 2020/02/25 - Introducing mypy in code with lots of issues
- 2020/02/26 - Accelerate slow pytests
- 2020/02/27 - Identifying python files with no coverage
- 2020/02/28 - Pytest with tests files with similar names
- 2020/02/29 - Slow python imports

1.2 March

- 2020/03/01 - Visual Studio Code templates
- 2020/03/02 - Quickly recording notes using VS Code
- 2020/03/03 - Mypy and implicit namespaces
- 2020/03/04 - List outdated packages using poetry
- 2020/03/05 - Adding tests to a project with no tests
- 2020/03/06 - Assessing a dataset quality
- 2020/03/07 - Improving the performance of a slow click CLI